Quality You Can Trust

All Newport Brass kitchen faucets feature solid brass construction and are built to last. Our engineering team has optimized every design detail to ensure that our faucets provide years of worry-free use.

Every one of our pull-down faucets is equipped with a multi-function spray engine so that you can choose the spray pattern that is ideal for your particular application. Whether it's washing dishes or rinsing delicate vegetables, we've got it covered.

We are especially proud of our new magnetic docking system. High strength earth magnets secure the spray head in place while a unique swivel ball joint allows you to deliver water throughout the sink with ease.
